[15/10/2020, 22:50:38] Dominic Cummings: We shd start an enforcement dashboard as part of covid reporting. I've harped on but it's killing us. How do you justify ever more Potemkin laws that aren't obeyed? At what point do people reasonably say fuck this I'm the idiot for taking the rules seriously? Like with surveillance and data, the truth is we've ducked out of facing these questions at a political level. We shouldn't. We shd look at enforcement metrics like hospital metrics. And change the laws on policing. Or else admit to ourselves we genuinely aren't serious!
