Wanted to talk to you about this in the margins of meeting tmrw. Short answer is his initial proposal is to announce in Sept & go at Christmas. I haven't yet engaged. How hard to push for sooner?

We must get on with it now. Announce next week as part of reshuffle frenzy and it will all get lost in that

Let me see if I can square him for that? If I can't, we can still go if we want.

Separately, I may need your help to get sign off the GP contract to land with the BMA on Thursday. We have landed Policy Unit's last minute demands this weekend. BUT HMT currently blocking.

If I don't land this week we risk losing a year on GP policy. Will Warr is trying but we may need to bring you in to get Rishi to fix

We are pushing on the data agenda. Thought you might be interested in this from Ben Goldacre who I have got into harness to drive this across the nhs.
