Subject: Coronavirus strategy doc (2011 pan flu update) this week

Dear Sharon, Yvonne & Paul

In the past, we have discussed updating the 2011 pandemic flu strategy document. I wanted to flag that SoS has commissioned for THIS WEEK a coronavirus version of the strategy document. We intend to use and then build on what we already have, but will need the support and expertise of yourself, and other key partners, to deliver this.

I know that there are many pan flu supporting strategies and guidance documents which are more recent. Nonetheless, I appreciate this is an additional ask, and one that needs to move quickly. Our intention is to send out a framework, populated (even if rough draft) where possible, and with very definitions of what gaps there are, during the course of Tuesday, and to work with you and colleagues through Wednesday. Name (cc) will be holding the pen for us. If you think you have anything on the stocks that would be useful to share now for us to build into the skeleton, that would of course be very welcome.

Thanks in advance for your support on this.

Kevin
