[04/03/2020, 19:48:16] Michael Gove: You know me. I don't often kick off. But we are fucking up as a Government and missing golden opportunities. I will carry on doing what I can but the whole situation is even worse than you think and action needs to be taken or we'll regret it for a long time

[04/03/2020, 21:15:56] Dom: Missed voice call

[11/03/2020, 18:54:35] Dom: I'm tempted to take family to countryside and hold a press conference saying you're on your own the CabOff and parliament have fucked us all

[11/03/2020, 18:54:52] Dom: People should be shot

[12/03/2020, 01:50:59] Dom: M please sort this gov.uk farce immediately in am. If necessary get Manzoni and Jen Allum in a room and order him to give her 20m. We are urgently building tech for Corona and she's being told there is no fucking budget. Total madness from CabOff

[12/03/2020, 01:51:06] Dom: I emailed you earlier
[12/03/2020, 07:19:24] Michael Gove: This is the first I've heard of this issue
[12/03/2020, 07:40:54] Dom: Another thing I need you to do this morning -- get Jen Allum and Alison Pritchard and Lisa in a room with Manzoni and NR and DIRECT them to give what is needed to Verify out of CAB off budget. They are fucking around on this again. Right at a moment when digital identity is fucking CRITICAL. Tell Manzoni that either he writes a letter to Pritchard saying youve got what you need for Verify or you will write a ministerial direction. We have no time to fuck around on this stuff
[12/03/2020, 08:01:28] Dom: if in doubt grab Jen Allum and Ben Warner in a room, say 'what should happen' then tell Manzoni, 'John i want you to do exactly this and sign off necessary budgets now'. We have a couple weeks to get stuff ready for Corona wave. We have no time for usual CABOFF bullshit. Action this day!
[12/03/2020, 08:19:40] Michael Gove: Do call -
