Sorry not in our control. CO set up. I think we're waiting for Gove.

You should have all papers now - DFT one pretty light but basically asks for 24hrs before communicating.

Tba, No10 view is that we communicate this asap (this evening if needed)

Me too. It will leak anyway - and the Scots will try to get their announcement out first. Why don't you come in and advise that at the end.

I totally agree. I'm already getting calls about it. I will send a message on the chat when we come to the comms - I'm currently in a loud pub in Suffolk (as that's the only place I can find signal...), so probably best for me to do by message rather than audio 💎

Be robust on chat. DFT have had 24 hours already to get ready

Do we have lines already drafted? I asked for them at the 11:45 mtg

Natasha Price 25 Jul 2020 4:07 PM +00:00

DFT lead on comms but I fed back to the PPS directly after our meeting and also told them to get the regs ready.
