PM

PM "what am I being told? Is this a great triumph"

Hancock "yes, a great triumph"

Care homes - upward spike in cases over the past few days. Here we go again.

PM "We need to remember the grim history of March"

Called for a package of actions. Hancock says "we have a care home winter plan"

PM "everyone says rule of 6 so unfair, punishing the young but FUCK YOU Daily Mail - look this is all about stopping deaths. We need to tell them".

Hospital admissions clearly beginning to increase.

Simon Stevens Says Covid admissions doubling [over 1 wk]. (why was Steve Powis so resistant on this at SAGE??)

Also in-patient with Covid ↑ from 400 to 500.

Wales very high - PM says "It is the singing and the obesity ... I never said that"

Birmingham Solihull being locked down for social contact today.

Now asking "why couldn't we have eliminated it like China did"

I pushed hard on (i) self isolate incentives and (ii) R will be >1 when schools and universities open

PM said "yes we need to do that now now now"

Dido argued this is like jury service. It is a civic duty.

Simon Case said "you will need to persuade Rishi personally"

Meeting on R&D funding at no 10 - my goodness
