Team,

Please see enclosed letter from the Shadow Minister. I will review this too but I think we need a clear response as this is clearly about writing off costs and the financial position of this organisation.

I would like to review the various requests that were mentioned on each of the calls yesterday as well as the various proposals that were mentioned on the call. I will need to see a clear outline of how we will get the resources to those who need them (whether it's HO money or from the HMT pot) what we are paying for, the sustainability as well as a clear identification of what costs have been incurred due to Covid/lockdown etc

I hope that's all ok. Thank you

Subject: Letter to Rt Hon Rishi Sunak MP - accommodation for domestic abuse survivors

Dear Rishi,

Please find attached a letter from organisations and individuals within the violence against women and girls sector, asking the government to urgently underwrite the costs of hotel and hostel chains offering safe accommodation to survivors of domestic and sexual abuse.

I look forward to your response.

Kind regards,

Jess
