[03/12/2020, 19:03:00] Will Burgon: No10 has asked if you wouldn't mind texting the PM re vaccines and Tuesday – draft below if you're content to do, but I can absolutely say need to cover in different way if you'd prefer not.

[03/12/2020, 19:03:10] Will Burgon: Had good discussion on vaccine deployment earlier with Matt and the team, following up your steer from yesterday on prioritisation. Clear view from team and Matt that given the shift in planning and focus on over-80s we should hold to Tuesday for V-Day, which has side benefit of also seeing needles enter arms across the UK. Think best to take the extra 24hrs to make sure we get this right – can of course discuss. We will however make sure we have quiet plans to accelerate if a DA tries to jump gun.

Also have given you note overnight on NI negotiations, which I look forward to discussing tomorrow lunchtime – 🙌 we're nearly there.

[03/12/2020, 19:29:05] Will Burgon: (Also v useful to know if you do text, or if you'd rather not, as will update No10 either way)

[03/12/2020, 19:34:06] Michael Gove: Have texted

[03/12/2020, 19:34:30] Will Burgon: 🍷
