

[26/08/2020, 12:49:11] Rebecca Evans: One more question... a socially distanced outdoor concert for 30 people... allowed or not allowed? I think not allowed, but don't want to be wrong on this as it is for charity. As you can see, I am clearing some casework! 😊

[26/08/2020, 13:01:53] Kirsty Williams: As Vaughan said confirmation later today, but can I what parents are saying/raising with you?

[26/08/2020, 13:05:32] Rebecca Evans: A general concern that we may say one thing for public transport (masks, limited number of passengers) but at the same time allow the Gower college busses to operate at full capacity and without masks. There is a concern that this doesn't seem to make sense and people are worried that the young people will get the virus and transmit it to their families.

[26/08/2020, 13:08:11] Kirsty Williams: Thanks, helpful to know.

[26/08/2020, 13:14:55] Eluned Morgan: Socially distanced outdoor concert for up to 30 is possible but no more than 30. We have 3 pilot events coming up for up to 100 people.

[26/08/2020, 13:21:47] Rebecca Evans: Great - thanks, Eluned!

[26/08/2020, 13:25:21] Rebecca Evans: Does the 30 include the performers? Sorry!

[26/08/2020, 13:26:23] Lee Waters: Seems more like a recital than a concert

[26/08/2020, 13:27:28] Rebecca Evans: They said concert... I think they envisaged a number of different performers etc. It's the Bont cricket club who are asking...

[26/08/2020, 14:14:35] Eluned Morgan: 30 includes the performers and I am afraid that the concert should not include any amplified instruments , no loud music, no wind instruments.

[26/08/2020, 14:15:11] Rebecca Evans: Sounds like a blast! 😊

[26/08/2020, 14:15:39] Eluned Morgan: Sounds like a boring concert!

[26/08/2020, 14:19:35] Jeremy Miles: We are permitting brass bands to play outside, socially distanced.

[26/08/2020, 15:02:29] Rebecca Evans: These "but only x number are in hospital" arguments remind me of the "but you don't have dandruff" adverts a few years back...

[03/09/2020, 13:14:57] ~ Madeleine Brindley: All - if you've received an email in your MS accounts from Suzy Davies about Plenary dates can you delete it please. This is a fake email. Please don't open it. Thanks

[03/09/2020, 17:20:14] Clare Jenkins: Vaughan is just about to publish a statement on travel. We are taking a number of places off the exempt list including Greek Islands

[05/09/2020, 09:59:25] Lee Waters: <https://twitter.com/cerysfurlong/status/1302165584143167488?s=21>

[08/09/2020, 11:37:35] Rebecca Evans: Hi all. Just wondering where we are with cleaners - is that allowed under the 'working in people's homes' guidance, or is it still prohibited? Apols, I should probably know that one!

[08/09/2020, 11:39:12] Eluned Morgan: It is definitely allowed. I can send you the guidance if helpful.

Irrelevant & Sensitive

Irrelevant & Sensitive

[02/10/2020, 13:32:39] Jane Hutt: Do the new regs for single households come in today or tomorrow?

Irrelevant & Sensitive

[05/10/2020, 07:29:57] Lee Waters: https://www.itv.com/news/wales/2020-10-05/boris-johnson-confirms-his-government-will-try-to-take-forward-m4-plan?fbclid=IwAR2b-6uhC3wCVAhgqGWUy-rdugVHxS9_4vCQgCLO6uRZauJEL06TX7ZlRck

[05/10/2020, 17:22:13] Rebecca Evans: For FM and VG mostly, but following up from Cabinet: Mick is v opposed to debating 16 and 17 tomorrow because it bypasses his Ctte and their opportunity to scrutinise. I do share his concerns about bypassing scrutiny, and I also have concerns about how it looks. I will resist this tomorrow and suggest proper discussion with Mick. He had a brief chat with someone from the Llywydd's office but feels that is insufficient. He wants a proper paper he can discuss with his Ctte, which I think is fair enough.

[05/10/2020, 23:58:40] Vaughan Gething: I think we should say it's up to the legislature. It's a balance between having an earlier vote in the chamber or a vote at a later date after the relevant committee has scrutinised the regs. We can live with either. Either reflect much more significant scrutiny and oversight from the legislature than in Westminster. I don't think we need to take a fixed position.

[06/10/2020, 08:36:55] Rebecca Evans: I agree it is for the legislature, but any change needs 2/3

[22/11/2021, 17:25:19] Lesley Griffiths: What a disappointing name fir the queens printer. With apologies to anyone called Jeff/Geoff 🙏

[22/11/2021, 17:46:31] Mick Antoniw: There are at least two of them lol

[25/11/2021, 07:40:51] Lee Waters: image omitted

[25/11/2021, 07:52:01] Julie James: Oh good grief!

[25/11/2021, 07:53:33] Julie James: The spirit of co-operation was very evident during the cladding debate yesterday -not! And that's in the agreement too. As feared they can attack us but we have to be nice back. Perfect

[25/11/2021, 14:18:10] You: You turned on disappearing messages. New messages will disappear from this chat 7 days after they're sent, except when kept. Tap to change.

[22/12/2021, 15:00:50] ~ Madeleine Brindley: I&S started a call

[23/10/2022, 17:08:09] Jane Hutt: Jane Hutt started a call