A complete mess

This should be on paper.

Robin has made that point

Yup.

How's your paper coming?

I've done the intro. Awaiting receipt of the items they want listed for discussion.

That's progress.

Some.

I've had very little information during the course of the day.

I've heard nothing at all

What an abject failure

Awful and I'm worried about Naomi staying in

Hang their heads in shame. Tell that story to the wife and two boys of a 49 year old who said goodbye to their father on Facebook on Friday. There will as a consequence be more.

I don't understand some of Diane's proposals. What is she saying about sport and about hotels?

And there's £500m sitting there

There are some big unanswered policy questions.

I have absolutely no idea what being proposed

Have you seen Diane's paper?

Just received

And what about visitor attractions which are closed, museums and galleries?
