Thanks. My discussion this morning was with

[REDACTED] @wales.nhs.uk

I am not sure all new residents need to self isolate so maybe PHW can advise urgently

Kind Regards
Albert

Andrea, Albert

I have drafted as per the attached. However there are a couple of matters to follow up:

- Can you advise who to liaise with on testing please?
- Has the position on care homes accepting people with a Covid-19 diagnosis or undiagnosed symptoms changed? I've drafted based on my understanding that people should only be accepted without symptoms but agree to 7 days self-isolation. Is there a PHW contact I can discuss with?

Thank you NR I understand the importance of this matter. I will look to issue some further guidance on Monday. Important for health experts to reassure care home providers and support.

Expectations have been discussed with sector leads.

- Discharges need to continue – we need to take people out of hospital into care homes
- No need for unnecessary testing (you will be aware have limited capacity at this stage although will dramatically increase at the beginning of April)
- When discharging people who have a positive coronavirus diagnosis then personal protective equipment should be used (guidance has been issued) and as much support and health advice as required should be offer to care staff
- I am meeting with Public Health Wales to discuss testing in the morning.

Kind regards
Albert

Thanks.

I've been contacted by a care home I&S who are being asked to take patients from what they term 'covid19 positive hospital'. They are not showing symptoms but the home feel to protect the 69 people they have the new patients should be either isolated or tested. They are also concerned that no testing is available for staff who are ill.

Not sure who to direct this to for advice?
