Subject: Re: For Decision 9 AM - Procurement of testing kits for key workers

Hi [NR]
Thanks very much for this. CST agrees with your advice and has approved.

He is however still very clear that we should be pushing DHSC hard on the absence of a detailed breakdown on what demand modelling shows we will need against the supply curve of what will be in place (equipment and staffing). I know you're doing this already, but he will want to see progress tomorrow.

Thanks again,

[NR]
