Does this mean that the department of health haven't seen the NHS plans yet?

Ben

Hi,

Apparently departments hold their own detailed civil contingencies plans, as well as their business continuity plans. We do not have these centrally.

The NHS also hold their own plans. CCS are working with DHSC to get appropriate sight of this.

This is a short doc - would you mind asking if they have a longer, more detailed civil contingencies plan? Also, can we see the NHS's plan. Sorry, you guys may have already seen these, I'm a bit behind.
