Subject: RE: SENSITIVE: FOR URGENT ATTENTION - PPE PROCESS STREAMLINING

Chris,

In terms of process, will do our best to update the CST on this today. It would be great if we could have the usual latest numbers, including the demand model below to help us do that.

To help us explain this to the CST, just a few questions on the substance:

1. Which orders have you lost, e.g. total units by product type? (This will help explain the scale of the issue)
